Feast, pranks at English wedding

PLYMOUTH — Visitors to Plimoth Plantation may join in songs, sports, teasing the bridegroom and giving advice to the couple when Mary Warren weds Robert Bartlett in a traditional English country wedding in the 1627 Pilgrim Village on July 9.

The all-day event will begin with flower gathering and the making of garlands and favors for the bride, her attendants, and the couple's bed chamber. Garlands will include rosemary for faithfulness and remembrance, sage for long life and marjoram for grace.

Village men will share tales with Bartlett and women will discuss the advantages of maidenhood and marriage. Visitors may offer their advice to the bride or bridegroom.

In view of visitors, Ms. Warren will be dressed in elegant Pilgrim attire. Groomsmen will escort Ms. Warren while bridesmaids escort Bartlett to an open green where the wedding ceremony will take place. As they march, villagers will strew rushes, herbs and flowers along the path.

After the couple is wed, the wedding party and guests will cast wheat over the newlyweds to symbolize fertility.

The wedding feast will be held outside the Bradford house, and visitors may join in rounds of songs or games of tug of war, jingling, egg races, runnin' the quintain and impromptu dancing to the music of a pipe and tabor. Several Wampanoag visitors to the Pilgrim Village will also join in the sports.

The bride and bridegroom will proceed to their bed chamber, where the groomsmen will take the bride's garters and wear them in their hats. Villagers will partake in final pranking, including "flinging of the stocking," and serving the groom a drink of sack-posset.

The English country wedding is held each year at Plimoth Plantation. A combination ticket to all exhibits is $6.50 for adults, $3.75 for children ages 5 to 13, and children under 5 are free. Admission to just the Pilgrim Village is $5.25 for adults, $2.75 for children.

Plymouth V.R. says she died 2 Oct. 1673

He came from London and was called a merchant of that city (by Mourt). As he died in 1628 it is probable that he was considerably past middle life at the date of emigration. He was not of the Leyden Company, but joined the Pilgrims from London; Ø 1620, the 12th signer of the Mayflower Compact, in Provincetown Harbor, 21 Nov. 1620, and was one of the 19 signers who survived the first winter. Under the land division of 1623, his apportionment, as one of the Mayflower passengers, fell in the north side of the town, and under those who came in the "Ann", his wife and daus. having come on that ship, his lands were "on the other side of the towne towards Eele River," where he made his home, in the section later known as Wellingsley or Hobshole, and where he died in 1628. He also owned land along the shore of the present Warren's Cove. In the early Plymouth Colony records, his wife was usually spoken of as "Mistress" Elizabeth Warren, an uncommon designation, and she was one of the few widows of the Colony who did not remarry. It was entered on the records that "haueing liued a godly life, came to her graue as a shoke of corn fully ripe." Richard is mentioned in Longfellow's poem about Miles Standish, John Alden and Priscilla Mullen. R. was one of the party of 18 who set out in the shallop to make more extended exploration around Cape Cod Bay and landed at Eastham on Wed. Dec. 16 - on Fri. morning at 5 am they were attacked by 30 or 40 Ind. w/bows & arrows.

Washington

William de Hertburn of Hartburn, County Durham changed his name to William de Wessyngton. (later sp. Washington) which was then the name of Washington Old Hall in Washington Old Village, County Durham, nr
Newcastle-on-Tyne.
William is possible builder of Washington Old Hall & the first ancestor of Geo. Washington to live there.
Geo. Washington's remote ancestors & their desc lived at Washington Old Hall for 430 yrs. (His nr. ancestors lived at Sulgrave Manor about 100 yrs.)

The house dates from about 1183

George's ancestral house England birthday gift to U.S.

The British people's first bicentennial gift to the American people is a long-term lease on the oldest ancestral home of the Washington family in England, Washington Old Hall from which the family took its name.

Students of American history who have always accepted Sulgrave Manor in Northamptonshire as THE home of George Washington's ancestors will have to make room in their thinking for Washington Old Hall in Washington Old Village, County Durham near Newcastle-on-Tyne. Washington's near ancestors lived at Sulgrave about 100 years. His remote ancestors and their descendants occupied Washington Old Hall for 430 years.

The Earl of Antrim, chairman of the National Trust of England, Wales and Ireland, owner of Washington Old Hall, will present a 21-year-lease on the property to the American people in Washington Monday (May 5). It will be accepted by John Warner, chairman of the American Revolutionary Bicentennial Administration.

The gift is really symbolic as the National Trust cannot by law relinquish possession of Washington Old Hall and will continue to administer it as a public museum. However, for the 1975-76 Bicentennial period, American visitors will not have to pay the entrance fee and the American flag will fly on the terrace above the garden every day.

The first ancestor of George Washington to live at Washington Old Hall —and its possible builder —was William de Hertburn of Hartburn, County Durham. As was the custom of the times he changed his name to William de Wessyngton, which was then the name of the place, later to be spelled Washington.

The house dates from about 1183, although only the foundations and the lower walls of one wing are the original sandstone. The house as it stands today is a typical manor house of the early 1600s. George Washington's last ancestor to live there was John, a great-great grandson of William, who moved to Lancashire in the late 1200s.

Washington Old Hall wound up as a tenement and was condemned as an unfit habitation 40 years ago. A local preservation committee bought it and it was restored with funds raised in Britain and the United States. It has been open as a museum since 1955 and was given to the National Trust in 1957. Only the upstairs rooms —a bedroom and a larger room which could be used as an exhibition hall—remain to be restored.

The first floor contains a beamed great hall with Gothic arched doorways from the original manor, a spacious kitchen of the 17th Century, a handsome paneled room with fine Jacobean paneling from a similar manor house and a staircase from the White Hart Hotel in Guildford. Most of the furnishings are early 17th century antiques.

Although the manor probably consisted of considerable lands before it passed from the Washington family in 1613, the house now sits on only 2,559 square yards of property. George Washington's great-grandfather, John, emigrated to Virginia in 1656, probably since his father was deprived of a well-paying rectorate during the Cromwell period because of his loyalty to Charles I. John restored the family fortune.

Mr. Gerald G. Weeks
4 Beech Road
Enfield, Conn. 06082

Dear Mr. Weeks,

Was so interested in your letter of March 15, and the enclosures telling about Abner Weeks of China, Maine. And, I must admit that I was surprised to find none of the surnames with which I am connected - in nearby Albion, Maine. But, of course, my ancestors arrived in Albion early in the 1800's, which was "late" compared to the latter part of the 1700's when the Weeks family removed to Jones Plantation.

In addition - I have done some research for my son-in-law, on several Maine families; and again - no repetition of the names you are searching! (But, Maine is a BIG state.)

If you were to write to the Town Clerk here in Falmouth, Mass., for information about some of your ancestors, the request would probably be turned over to the Falmouth Historical Society, which, in turn, would deliver the request directly to the "Recorder" of that Society. I do not know if there is more than one Recorder or not - but I do know one who serves in that capacity:

Col. Oliver B. Brown, USA (Ret)
P.O. Box 328
Falmouth, Mass. 02541

He is the one I was referring to - who is preparing alphabetical records of all births, deaths and marriages here in Falmouth; also he has all but two of the many local cemeteries indexed. If there are any Vital Records here in Falmouth that refer to your Weeks-Gifford problem, I am sure he would know of them. Or at least be able to tell you where to look. The Falmouth Library has a fairly good genealogical section - especially as concerns Cape Cod families. However, I have not looked to see if there is any special Weeks data. I myself am somewhat interested in Gifford - - my father-in-law's grandmother was born Sarah Gifford Farris - in Yarmouth, about 1806 (I'm trusting to memory at the moment). I have traced her mother's lines, and do not find a Gifford anywhere. It may show up in her father's ancestry, which I have had no luck with at all, to date.

You mentioned that you might spend your vacation on the Cape this summer. It is possible that it might be more satisfactory to contact Col. Brown in person, rather than through the mail. Do hope to meet you and your family, if you do get to this area. (Incidentally, you were born the same year as my older brother; and your sister Ruth was born the same year as I - according to your "Twig from the Family Tree.")

I always appreciate every scrap of information about Eddys - even if it is something we already have. Sometimes these "scraps" correct data in our books; many times they provide new information; and even if only "repeat" information, it serves to verify what we already have.

Jonathan^3 Eddy (Eleazar^2 John^1 - of an Unconnected Branch!) is well recorded, with material covering 3 pages of the "Eddy Family in America" (pub. in 1930). He had sons Jonathan^4, William^4, Ibrook^4, and Elias^4. This family moved from Taunton, Mass. to what is now known as Eddington, Maine. At least one of the sons was killed in the Revolution; several or all served (I have not checked our books for all details). Eddington is a little north (or northeast) of Bangor. -- I have sent Mr. Williams a "notice" about the newest book in the Eddy series, with mention of the earlier books; I hope this will appear in a Nutmegger soon. (I compiled more than half of - and typed camera ready material of all of the 546 page Eddy Supplement that came out last fall.)

Dear Mrs. Eddy,

So nice of you to write and offer help to me in my project. I have hit a blank wall and for the past two years I at a stalemate. I just can't to find the connection with Abner to the Cape.

In the census of China, Maine, 1790, (Jones Plantation) Soloman was listed as head of family with no male or females listed. A Soloman Jr. head of family and two females were listed. Early records of that area listed the other Weeks that may be children of Soloman as well as Abner. That is the only clue I have at the present. Weeks gen by Robert D Weeks, vol II gave a Soloman Weeks m Ruth Gifford of Falmouth, Mass. as records of Weeks not traced to his book.

In the census of Maine, 1790 , I find a Elias, Jonathan, and a Ibrook Eddy all families with children all residents of Eddy Township, Hancock County, Maine. I am not able to find that town on morden maps. it could have a name change or no longer is alive. These people must be some where in your ancestral line.

There was ~~a~~ Weeks families in Falmouth, Maine in fact there are several there today. but, this is not my line. (as yet) my people came from the Cape Cod area.

For the past seven years I have spent my vacations in Maine and did pretty good for a while. I have read some books on early history of the Cape and find many many Weeks families there in the early-middle 1600- 1700s. I have plans to spend a couple of weeks down that way this summer and I will keep in touch with you. I have a camper that my wife and one child (the youngest) and I spend camped here and there while I am in some graveyard or town hall.

Early history of Weeks (Cape Cod history) brings Weeks First appeared in Sandwich, later to Falmouth, Mass. I am trying to tie Abner-Soloman from that area to Maine. I am also working on Chadwick from that area.

If you are interested I am sending along a Mrs Katheryn Jackson, R.F.D. #1, North Vassalboro, Maine. 04962. who has completed all cemeteries and vital records of almost everyone in and around China, Maine. She has helped me out quite a bit on names, etc.

Thanks again for your letter and any info on Soloman-Abner Weeks will be greatly appriciated.

Bye for now:
Gerald G Weeks

Dear Mr. Weeks,

When looking at the March 1972 Nutmegger, I spotted the Cape Cod name of Gifford, and your query about Solomon Weeks who married Ruth Gifford, and was living in Falmouth, Mass. about 1750. I further noticed that your other queries about various Weeks were in the area of China, Maine. (My grandfather sometimes claimed to have been born in China, though in reality I believe he was born in Albion. At any rate, you can see that the double names - of Falmouth, Mass. and China, Maine - attracted my attention!)

Although Gifford very definitely is a local name (there is a Gifford St. here in Falmouth), I couldn't help but wonder if you really meant what is now known as Falmouth, Maine - or if you truly mean this Cape Cod town where I now live.

I am afraid that I, personally, cann add little or nothing to the information you already have. However, if you have any questions about persons who lived here in Falmouth (on Cape Cod) from its incorporation in 1686 (first called Suckanesset) until 1850 - I know of someone who is making a special study of this, and has access to all Vital Records, as well as records of gravestones in all but 2 cemeteries here in town. If you are interested in further information, I'll be happy to pass it along to you.

Sincerely,

Miriam B. Eddy

a deed to his son Benjamin^2, 9 May 1693, which will be given in its proper place, in which he calls himself "of Cochecho, now liueing in Exeter." But he returned to Dover. A deed from him to his son Timothy^2, 27 May 1696, shows him to be in Dover.

An entry in the journal of Rev. John Pike,* pastor of his church, reads as follows:—

> March 16, $9\frac{6}{7}$. Elder Wentworth deceased a few days after he was taken speechles with a sudden shivering.

The entry on the return made by appraisers, however, says that he died on the fifteenth. If this be so, he died on the eighty-first anniversary of the day of his baptism.

His signature may be found to the "Combination" article of 1639, which is still preserved at Exeter, N. H.; and also as a witness to the Will of Rev. Daniel Maud, of Dover, N. H., executed 17, 11 mo., 1654, that is, 17 January 1655. A fac-simile of the latter is here given:—

William Wentworth

Upon the old homestead of his son Timothy^2 Wentworth, in Berwick, Me., now owned by Timothy's^2 descendant Daniel^5 (686) Wentworth, the writer found in an old birch-bark box an original deed from William^1 Wentworth and wife Elizabeth to son Timothy^2, dated 27 May 1696. His autograph† was well preserved, as here given. She, however, made her mark.

* John Pike, successor to John Reyner, jr., as sixth pastor of the Dover church and eighth minister of the town, was son of Hon. Robert Pike; was born in Salisbury, Mass., 13 May 1653; H. C. 1675; entered upon ministerial duty at Dover 1 November 1678, but was not ordained until 31 August 1681; and died in office 10 March 1709–10. He married, 5 May 1681, Sarah, second daughter of Rev. Joshua Moodey, of Portsmouth. His very valuable journal, with list of marriages, 1686 to 1710, is in the library of the Massachusetts Historical Society, and has been lately printed for the "Proceedings" of that Society, with extended notes. He was succeeded in the Dover pastorate by Nicholas Sever.

† In the body of a deed, dated 18 November 1667, he is called William Winford. In the Dover records, among the list of freemen for 1653, is Elder Winford; but in records of 1652, 1654, 1664, and other years, it is correctly given Wentworth. By others than himself the name was often variously written, Wintworth, Winford, Wenford, Wintford, and Wantworth.

1. Samuel^2, about 1666, the twenty acres which he sold to Clements, alluded to in No. 2 above.

2. John^2, 1 December 1674, as by deed No. 4 above.

3. Gershom^2 was in possession of land from the original tract, as by allusion in No. 4 above.

4. Ezekiel^2. His lands near Salmon Falls did not come from his father. But as his son Capt. Benjamin^3 (33) Wentworth had the bounds of the Emery marsh renewed for himself in 1722, it is probable it came by his father.

5. Paul^2 had the land which he sold to his brother Benjamin^2 in 1696, as by No. 6 above.

6. Sylvanus^2 had occupied land which his father afterwards gave to Benjamin^2, as by No. 7 above.

7. Timothy^2 had deed No. 8 above.

8. Ephraim^2 had the share in the Fresh Creek mill privilege, which he sold to John Waldron 10 May 1726.

9. Benjamin^2 had deed No. 7 above, and probably the homestead also.

It is evident that a considerable share of his land had already been disposed of, to his sons, during his lifetime. The inventory of his estate is not large; partly, undoubtedly, on account of the disposal of lands to his sons; and it is possible that the paucity of his household goods may be due to the Indian destruction in 1689. All of his children had married, and were settled upon property of their own. In 1680, on the provincial tax-list, Elder William^1 stood seventh in amount of the residents of Cochecho, in point of property.

The following is a copy of the inventory of his estate, from the original in the Probate Office at Exeter, N. H.: —

A inventory of Mr. William Wintworth desesed. The 15th day of March 1696-7, his estate is as followeth: —

Jeremy Belknap was his colleague in the last two years of his life, and succeeded him. Mr. Cushing's list of baptisms and of persons received to the church, commencing 1717, copied by Dr. Belknap, are the oldest extant records of the church, which was organized in 1638. BENJAMIN² (11), son of Elder William¹ Wentworth, was probably the youngest child, and, according to tradition, was son of a second wife. He inherited his homestead from his father, it being part of the Elder's large tract. The following deed, dated 9 May 1693, is on record at Exeter, N. H.: —

> Know all men by these p'sents yt I Willm Wentworth of Cochecho now liueing in Exeter Do giue and grant unto my son Benja Wentworth of Cochecho all that Corn that he hath sown and planted this year in my home lott and the black cow that he hath made choyce of and the Land yt my son Sylvanus Wentworth liued uppon. The Elder was then preaching in Exeter, N. H. This homestead was about two miles northeast of Cochecho Falls, Dover, and east of Garrison Hill. It has never been out of the possession of the family. From Benjamin² it passed to his son Benjamin³ (67) (the other heirs conveying their rights to him, 22 June 1737); he gave it to his sons Benjamin⁴ (309) and Bartholomew⁴ (310), and it is now owned by Bartholomew⁵ (851), son of Bartholomew⁴.

It will be noticed, also, in the account of Timothy², that Timothy², 11 April 1705, conveyed land in Dover to James Hamilton, who conveyed it to Benjamin² 5 April 1707.

Benja Wentworth

Benjamin² was constable in Dover in 1711 and 1713, and surveyor of highways in 1703 and 1717.

323. Nicholas^4, born 7 September 1748. [886]
324. Elihu^4, born 7 November 1751. [898]

JOSEPH^3 (70), son of Benjamin^2 and Sarah (Allen) Wentworth, born 22 December 1709; was called, in deeds, sometimes "yeoman," sometimes "husbandman." He was owner of the highlands now known as "Prospect Hill," at Great Falls, N. H., and old records indicate that he owned the land on which is now part of the village of Great Falls.* He died 26 January 1765. He had wife Rachel, who had dower set off 18 May 1769, land on southerly side of road "leading to the Great Falls, by Benjamin^4 (309) Wentworth's land," and one-third of the mill privilege. She died in Somersworth, 1 May 1774; it has been impossible to find her maiden name. They had:

Joseph Wentworth

325. Joseph^4, born in Somersworth. [903]

325*a*. Rachel^4, born in 1737; married her paternal cousin Benjamin^4 (309) Wentworth, whom see for children.

325*b*. Charity^4, born about 1740; married John Dore, son of Philip and Sarah Dore,† of Newington, N. H.; baptized 5 July 1730. The nearest approximation to the date of their marriage is that, in 1756, he deeded land to Stephen Evans, of Dover, N. H., without his wife's name, and that, 6 April 1762, he deeded to same as John and wife Charity, of Lebanon, Me. She was younger than her sister Rachel^4 (325*a*), who died in 1818, aged 81, and she died several years before her husband, who also died before her sister Rachel^4. The supposition is that she was born about 1740, and died about 1810, aged about 70; and that he died about 1817, aged about 87. They lived at what was known as Wentworth's Corner, or Lebanon Centre, Me. The ages of their fourteen children averaged over 80 years each, some living to be nearly 100 years. They had, all born in Lebanon, Me., and the youngest was born in 1777:

1. Daniel^5 Dore; married, 22 November 1781, Dorcas, sister of Rebecca (Garland), wife of his brother Jonathan^5, and daughter of Dodivah Garland, of Milton, N. H., where they lived. He died 31 January 1831. She died 4 March 1836, aged 76 years and 20 days. They had:
    1. George^6 Dore, born 7 July 1798; was living at Milton Ridge, N. H., at last dates.
2. John^5 Dore; married, 20 March 1788, Lucy Whitehouse; lived and died in Lebanon, Me. They had:
    1. Abigail^6 Dore; married, 24 March 1816, Aaron^6 (2581) Wentworth, whom see for children. They lived in Rochester, N. H.
3. Jonathan^5 Dore; married, 24 August 1788, Rebecca, sister of Dorcas (Garland), wife of his brother Daniel^5, and daughter of Dodivah Garland, of Milton, N. H., where he lived and died. He was a soldier in the war of 1812.
4. Hannah^5 Dore; married James Wooster, and lived in Alton, N. H.
5. Betsey^5 Dore, lived with her sister Hannah^5, and died single.
6. Charity^5 Dore, lived at Rochester, N. H., and died single.
7. Joseph^5 Dore; married, 1st, Sally Hussey, of Shapleigh,

* From York co. (Me.) records, page 296, vol. XXVI, Thomas Butler, of Berwick, deeds to Joseph Wentworth, of Somersworth parish, Dover, N. H., yeoman, seven and one half acres of land granted to Thomas Abbot, jr., by the town of Kittery, 24 May 1699. [The whole grant to Abbot was fifty acres].

† DORE.—Savage, in his Genealogical Dictionary, does not mention the name of Dore. Richard Dore was of Portsmouth, N. H., as early as 1675, and his Will was proven 17 March 1715-16. He mentions wife Tamsen, and "children" but gives no names. Among them was probably, Philip^2 Dore, who lived there in 1714, and in Newington, N. H., in 1717; having wife Sarah, who "owned the covenant," and had children, Henry^3 Dore, Elizabeth^3 Dore, and Frances^3 Dore, baptized 6 August 1727; also, Philip^3 Dore, baptized 11 March 1728, and John^3 Dore (above), 5 July 1730. Of these:

Henry^3 Dore had wife Mary, and removed from Rochester, N. H., to Lebanon, Maine.

Frances^3 Dore married Abijah Stevens, of Lebanon, Me., and died about 1804, leaving descendants.

Philip^3 Dore married Lydia Mason, removed to Shapleigh, Me., about 1770, and died there about 1796. They had, all born in Rochester, N. H.: Richard^4 Dore, married Hannah Webber; Elizabeth^4 Dore, married Paul Farnham; Mary^4 Dore, married Joseph Merrow, son of Samuel and Abigail Merrow, of Rochester, N. H.; Joseph^4 Dore, married, 16 April 1775, Patience Hussey; James^4 Dore, married, 3 August 1769, at Lebanon, Me., Hannah Hussey; Olive^4 Dore, married Ebenezer Tibbetts; Lydia^4 Dore, married Jacob Hersom; Philip^4 Dore, married, 1 June [illegible] at Lebanon, Me., Mary, daughter of James and Mercy (Foss) Locke, of Hampstead, N. H.; Phebe^4 Dore, married at Lebanon, 14 September 1766, Rev. [illegible] (609) Lord, who lived at Athens, Me.; Benjamin^4 Dore, born 9 January [illegible], married, 20 May 1777, Sarah Locke, born 1 January 1758, died 19 May 1850, sister to Mary (Locke), wife of his brother Philip^4, had nine children, of whom Ezekiel^5 Dore was father of Hon. John C.^{6} Dore, of Chicago, Ill., who graduated at Dartmouth College, 1847.

Elizabeth, daughter and heyre of Thomas Mounteney of Mountnessing in Essex . . . he toke to his second wife, Abigail, descended of the . . . famelye of the Knyvetts of Ashwellthorp and had issue by her Martine who married Bridget the daughter of Sir John Pettus of Norwich, Knighte; Robert and Abigaile who died without issue. Meriel who married to Brampton Gurdon of Assington in Suffolk, Esquier and at his age of 78 in the year of Grace 1609 happelye exchanged this transitory for eternal lyfe." (Bulwer, Brig. Gen. The Visitation of Norfolk in the Year 1563 Taken by William Harvey . . . Norwich, Agas H. Goose, 1895. p. 366). Secondly, the brass inscription for Abigail Sedley in Wacton Magna Church is given as "Hic jacet Abigail Sedley, vid., filia Johannes Knyvet de Ashouldthorp armigeri et nuper uxor Martini Sedley de Morley, armigeri, quae quidem obiit, 15 Dec. A.D. 1623." (Bulwer, op. cit., p. 368). In this same volume it is noted that Brampton Gurdon, Gent. and Muriall Sidley, Gent., were married at Morley St. Peter, Norfolk, July 8, 1606. (Bulwere, op. cit., p. 361). Additional information concerning John Knyvet and his family appears in Francis Blomefield's . . . Topographical History of the County of Norfolk. (London, William Miller, 1806. v. 5, pp. 151-156). He died before his mother, Jane (Bourchier) Knyvet (Knyvett) (will Consistory Court of Norwich 1562, 197 Cowles). His widow, Agnes (Harcourt) Knyvet, married secondly William Bowyer of Wimbleton, Surrey (will 1570 P.C.C., 20 Lyon) and died in 1579.

The problem of the ancestry of the wife of William Brewster of Scrooby, Yorkshire, and Plymouth, Massachusetts, has perplexed genealogists for many years. The statement that she was Mary Wentworth, the daughter of Thomas Wentworth, William Brewster's predecessor as postmaster at Scrooby, stems from a statement made by William Burgess in John Robinson, The Pastor of the Pilgrims (1920, p. 80). Many genealogists have spent considerable effort to confirm this statement. When John G. Hunt published New Light on the Brewsters of Scrooby (TAG. New Haven, 1965. v. 41, pp. 1-5, 63) after his earlier note Newcomen-Wentworth (NEH & GR. Boston, 1959. v. 113, pp. 68-69), his arguments were so convincing, that many people including our former Genealogist General, Ross Keelye Cooke, accepted as fact that Mary the wife of William Brewster was born Wentworth. Mr. Hunt has since published an excellent article entitled The Mother of Elder William Brewster of the Mayflower (NEH & GR. Boston, 1970, pp. 250-256), and he does not consider the parentage of Mary Brewster solved. We have included the line in this book since the evidence is strong in the favor of the Wentworth line, but we are no longer accepting lineages through Mary Brewster for membership in The Order of the Crown of Charlemagne, as more English research in primary sources, such as chancery proceedings, must be done to prove this line beyond a doubt.

There are thousands upon thousands of people who with some work could prove innumerable lines from Charlemagne. It is a long way from 20th century Potwin, Kansas, or Pontotoc, Oklahoma to 9th century France, but it is possible to span the centuries and form a continuous family tree by using the types of sources and methods that I have described. It is often not easy, sometimes impossible, but to the dedicated genealogist who has put a great deal of time and patience into this research, the rewards when they do come can be most gratifying, and the true story of the quest is usually better than a simulated detective thriller.

I Daniel Eastman of Cornish York County State of Maine aged about 76 years do testify and Say I have been acquainted with Charles White of Parsonfield in the County of York ever Since we were boys and that in the year 1775 he & I belonged to a company of Infantry commanded by Capt. Joshua Bragdon in Col. Scammon's Regiment, that we served Eight months in Said Company in Cambridge Mafsachusetts in the war of the Revolution

Also in the year 1777 Said White & I served four months at the taking of Burgoin's Army; we both belonged to a company Commanded by Capt. James Littlefield in Col. Storey's regiment

I also testify & say that in the year 1777, previous to the inlistment under Capt. James Littlefield Said White and I Served three months at a place called Piks Kills in the State of New York in a company command by Capt. Daniel Littlefield in Col Frost's Regiment Daniel Eastman

York ſs- August, 17th, 1832 - Then personally appeared the above named Daniel Eastman, who is a credible, disinterested witnefs, and made oath to the truth of the above affidavit, by him subscribed -

(written in inserts were that on Charles White's ancestry, etc. No positive links there either but a few good leads - I hope. Also, Lita finally heard from some bureau in D.C. with some papers on Charles - not exactly what I had hoped for but did learn a few things. He was b. 17 April 1758 in Kennebunk (deposition by Charles when he was applying for his pension), etc., etc. He served abt. 25 mos. - 4 enlistments - was at Cambridge, Mass.; Falmouth (now Portland) Maine; then Danbury, North Castle and Piks Kills (it looks like that - maybe Peekskill???), N.Y.; and last time at Bennington, Vt. & Stillwater - last discharge was at Albany, N.Y., Dec. 1777. He got around didn't he? Pension granted 24 July 1833 ($80 per annum) retroactive to 4 Mar. 1831 - so when he got his first payment it was all of $200. Boy, bet that was something in those days. The records I hoped to get (similar to a couple I have in my Pearl records which listed names of ch.) were not available. Seems there were a couple of fires in D.C. back in the old days - one in Nov. 1800, in the offices occupied by Sec. of War - the other in 1814 when Gov. bldgs in Wash. were burned by the British army (mean of them, eh what?). Anyway there are enough papers in the batch they finally dug up for me (through her request) so that I have a bit more to go on now. Then yesterday Pete called to tell about an item in a small genealogical pamphlet she gets (put out here in Maine) in which someones asked for parentage of Hannah White who m. Ebenezer Kezar. It was the same lady who had talked to me in State Library - an official in DAR of the Rumford group. Lives in Hartford - mail and phone through Canton. So I phoned her this morning but she was out. Left word and she called back later. She h'd put it in - in hopes to get some info for me. Nice of her. So I could tell her we'd located Charles as Hannah's fa. and he had a 1st wife named Hannah (living 8 July 1816 - names on a land deed) and that he m. (2) 6 July 1826, Mrs. Sarah Durgan. Natural supposition would be that Hannah's mo. would be the 1st w. by name of Hannah, seeing as our Hannah was old enough to get m. 25 Nov. 1806 to E.K. She found a Hannah Ricker who m. a Charles White who was b. 17 Apr. 1758 - in some book she had there - but said book said Charles died abt. 1790. Which can't be our Charles as he didn't die until 7 Feb. 1838, a few yrs. after getting his pension. Howsomever - I will start digging on Rickers to see what turns up. It was worth the price of the phone call anyway.

William White

William White, an Englishman, who had m. a Dutch wife and was living in Livingston Manor, threw in his lot with the Dutch immigrants, migrating to the bank of the Housatonic River. With Abraham Vandusen in 1720 he made a deal with the Indians and jointly with Vandusen purchased the same year the Gaylord & Noble land grant, extending along the river from about a mile above the Great Falls to somewhere near the present Dutchers Bridge.

In 1723 the tract was divided, the Whites taking the lower half, and here with his 4 sons, William White settled. Father William's house was a few rods North of a small stream which flows easterly across the highway to the cove below. George - lived on the West Side of the road opposite father's house. Benjamin lived a little so. of the brook, and Joshua still further south by the river. Isaac resided with his father -

An old cemetery - on land upon which the Whites settled.

Will of FRANCIS WHITMORE, 1625-1685.

After the payment of my just debts, I do give unto my loving wife the use and enfeofment of my whole estate, in housings, lands, and movables (excepting that part of my land by me already given unto my son Sam) during her widowhood and for her livelihood, and for the bringing up of my three youngest children, and for the expending of what learning she shall be able upon them.

But if she marry to another man my will is that she shall have £30 out of my movable estate, to dispose of as she shall see meet. To my youngest sons, Thomas and Joseph, I do give my housings, barns, and my part of the new mill with all the lands thereunto belonging, (except that part of the land by me set out and delivered to my son Samuel, which shall be the full portion, he not to share in any after division of any part of my estate), to be equally divided between them.

They to enter upon the possession thereof at the age of twenty and one years, if their mother be not then living, but if she be then living and continues my widow she shall not be depossessed of any part of my estate during her life. Also my will is that what of my estate do remain at my wife's decease or marriage which of them shall first happen, with what each of my children have already had being added thereunto shall be equally divided among them to each an equal share.

My two youngest sons to have the housing and land as aforesaid and to pay out of it the rest of my children, that which shall be accounted due to them as follows: My eldest son Francis his part to be due him in 2 full years after the possessing of my youngest sons of the housing and land as aforesaid. The second two years after and so on successively till all be had. To my grandchildren of Daniel Markham which he had by my daughter Elizabeth, I do give to each of them 20 shillings out of my estate. Also I do nominate my loving friends Will Locke, Sen, of Woburn, and Francis Moore of Cambridge to be the executors of this my last will.

Estate- Whitney, William   Date - 1754   No. 4150
Town - Lebanon   Dist. - Windham

Thomas Whitney came from 1 of the oldest and most distinguished families in the West of England, the Whitneys of Whitney - ruins of ancestral castle on the North bank of Wye river, near Wales border.

His uncle, Sir James, knighted by Queen Elizabeth at Winsor, 1570?, was Lord of Whitney, Clifford, Pencombe, Ocle? Pitchard, Kings Capell, Boughrid, Trumbyne?, Icomb, Clifton & Comwrich, & sheriff of Herefordshire.

His grandfather, Sir Robert, knighted by Queen Mary, 1553, represented that county in Parliament & from him could be traced back a long line of knightly Whitneys & De Whitneys to 12th century when the name originated & beyond them to Norman ancestors with other names even to the Conqueror.

WHITNEY.

Families of the name of Whitney are very numerous, not only in every State in New England, but in many other parts of the United States. There is scarcely a single large town, where they may not be found, and it is probable that most if not all of them are descendants of John and Elinor Whitney, of Watertown.* A concert of action among the many intelligent, well-educated persons of this name, might produce a very copious and interesting family memorial. The following is offered as a contribution towards such an undertaking.

1 Embarked at Ipswich, Eng. Ap., 1635, for New England, in the Elizabeth and Ann, Roger Cooper, master, JOHN WHITNEY, aged 35; wife ELLIN (Elinor), aged 30; sons John, aged 11; Richard, aged 9; Nathaniel, aged 8; Thomas, aged 6; and Jonathan, aged 1 year. He was admitted freeman, Mar. 3, 1635-6; was Selectman several years between 1638 and 1655 inclusive, and was Town Clerk, 1655. In 1642, his homestall lot of 16 acres (where he continued to reside), was bounded E. and S. by William Jennison; W. by Martin Underwood; N. by Isaac Mixer. [See 60.] He at the same time owned 8 other lots, amounting to 212 acres. The Registry of Deeds shows that he made additions to these possessions. His early admission as a freeman, and his early election as Selectman, show that he held a respectable social position. His wife, Elinor, d. May 11, 1659, and he m. (2d), Sept. 29, 1659, JUDAH (Judith) CLEMENT. He died a widower, June 1, 1673, aged 74. His Will, dated Ap. 3, 1673, attested by William Bond, Sr., and Sarah Bond, Sr., mentions sons John, Richard, Thomas, Jonathan, Joshua, and Benjamin. Inventory, dated June 4, 1673, 50 acres dividend land, £25; 3 acres of Beaver Brook meadow, and 1½ acre upland, £60; 1 acre plain meadow, £10. He had probably previously distributed much of his estate in the settlement of his sons. See his son Benjamin. [60.]

* Henry Whitney settled in Norwalk, Conn., as early as 1665. Whether he was related to the Watertown family, has not been ascertained; but probably he was not a son, nor a grandson of John and Elinor. At a town meeting in Norwalk, July 24, 1655, Henry Whitney agreed and engaged with the town to make, build, and erect a good and sufficient ground corn mill, at the mouth of Norwalk River, by the Falls. At the same meeting, the town voted and granted him a house lot, consisting of 2 acres, to be laid out upon the Mill Plain, upon the right hand of the path leading down to the Old Mill, being over the Runlett, two or three rods from the said Runlett, and also from the cartway. [See Hall's History of Norwalk, pp. 51 and 52.] There is no evidence in the History of Norwalk, that he had any family; but it is probable that it was his son, John Whitney, who m., in Norwalk, Mar. 17, 1674-5, Elizabeth, dr. of Richard Smith, and who inherited the mill; for, at a town meeting, held May 29, 1678, "it was voted and agreed on between the town and the miller, John Whitney," &c. Families of this name have continued to reside in Norwalk to a recent date, if not to the present time. For some account of them, see the Genealogical Register in Rev. Edwin Hall's History of that town.
